

Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act

One of the requirements of the protection of privacy once a student reaches over the age of 18 years. When a student is 18, no information, including marks, parent/teacher interviews etc., can be shared with his/her parents/guardians without the student's permission.

There is a form on the next page "Release of Information Authorization" that is necessary for any student who is 18 years old that wants to provide information to their parents/guardians.
